The bus was transporting prisoners from Middleton Unit in Abilene to the Sanchez Unit in El Paso when the accident occurred. Preliminary information is the vehicle left the roadway near mile marker 100 on Interstate 20 and collided with a train, according to the TDCJ. Conditions along that stretch of I-20 were described as icy at the time of the collision. The National Transportation Safety Board said it would investigate.

“It’s with a heavy heart that we mourn the loss of those killed and injured this morning in a tragic accident. Their loved ones will be in our thoughts and prayers,” said Brad Livingston, Executive Director of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.
